Date of transcription 09/11/2001

On September 11, 2001, at approximately 8:45 AM, Special Agent (SA) [REDACTED] received a telephone call from [REDACTED] employed by GTE AIRFONE, 2809 Butterfield Road, Oak Brook, Illinois. [REDACTED] thereafter provided the following information:

[REDACTED] he was relaying information from GTE AIRFONE employee [REDACTED] who was currently talking to a passenger on UNITED AIRLINES (UA) Flight 93, which had left Newark, New Jersey at 8:00 AM and was traveling to San Francisco, California. This passenger identified himself as TODD BEAMER, from Cranberry, New Jersey and he told [REDACTED] his flight had been hijacked by three Arab individuals. Two of the individuals were described by BEAMER as having knives, and the third had a bomb strapped to him. BEAMER was apparently sitting next to a flight attendant, who was relaying information to BEAMER. [REDACTED] further advised that BEAMER stated the hijacker seemed to be aware of the fact that he was on the telephone, but that they did not seem to care.

[REDACTED] advised his office was trying to patch BEAMER's phone call to SA [REDACTED] but GTE AIRFONE employees could not accomplish this task immediately. [REDACTED] further advised his office did not have the capability to record BEAMER's conversation [REDACTED] then [REDACTED] was no longer talking to BEAMER, and that it appeared to her that BEAMER may have placed the phone on a seat or in the magazine pocket. [REDACTED] that she could not hear any discernible conversations in the background.

At 9:03 AM, [REDACTED] he believed the telephone call had been disconnected. It was at this time that [REDACTED] the call had been received at GTE AIRFONE's Oak Brook, Illinois office via a cell relay near Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

At 9:11 AM, [REDACTED] advise the call had not disconnected, and that the phone might be in the seat pocket.

[REDACTED] At approximately 9:15 AM, [REDACTED] he was putting [REDACTED] on the phone, and that a patch of BEAMER's phone call to SA [REDACTED] was ready. Instead of patching BEAMER's call, a party line call ensued, in which [REDACTED] of the NEW YORK STATE POLICE, advised he was currently on the phone with whom he believed was the [redacted] of UA Flight 93 passenger JEREMY GLICK. [redacted] advised [redacted] was relaying information [redacted] currently obtaining from GLICK. GLICK, according to [redacted] described one of three hijackers as having a red box which was described as a bomb, and the others had knives. [redacted] also stated he was told by GLICK [redacted] that the passengers had decided to rush the hijackers.

[redacted] asked BEAMER the location and number of passengers; BEAMER replied there were 10 passengers in the front of the plane, 27 passengers in the back, and 5 flight attendants. BEAMER had also stated he believed the plane had changed course. BEAMER also advised one or all of the hijackers had entered the cockpit, locked the door, and pulled the curtain. [redacted] advised some screams were heard from GLICK's phone, and then things became quite. BEAMER was no longer heard from, but [redacted] report no noise other what appeared to be background noise.

No further contact with GLICK nor BEAMER was reported, and at 9:36 AM, both [redacted] both stated they lost the phone calls.
